

Exercise

- Take stock of where you are now in your finances.
- Goals: Set specific goals about what you would like to achieve in your finances in the long term. Why are these goals important to you? What will they enable you to do?

- Income: Is your current income enough to accomplish your goals? What do you have in your hands that you could use to earn an income? Conduct a skills-gap analysis to see what additional skills you would like to learn or consider what transitions you may want to make to achieve your goals.

Income needed:

What do I have in my hands?

Skills needed?

- Budget: Create a budget to identify your money habits or review your existing budget and compare it with your actual spending. Consider how much you are giving and saving as well. Does your budget reflect your values and God's priorities? What changes would you like to make?
Go to <https://www.happilywheneverafter.com/> to download a free budget template.

What the Bible says about money success

Remember the Lord your God. He is the one who gives you power to be successful, in order to fulfil the covenant he confirmed to your ancestors with an oath. (Deuteronomy 8:18)